MORNINGSIDE COLLEGE
CAMPUS EVENTS SERIES – Spring 2011

FEBRUARY

Soprano Elise Hepworth Feb. 24 7:30 pm Eppley Music Department

Dr. Elise Hepworth, professor of voice at Wayne State College, has performed leading roles with the University of Mississippi Opera Department and Inspiration Point Opera in Eureka Springs, Ark.

Serious Civics

American Conservative Thought, Part 2 Feb. 24 6 pm UPS

Dr. Sam Clovis, professor and chair of the business department, lectures on the post-World War II era and the emergence of William Buckley, Russell Kirk, Barry Goldwater and Ronald Reagan.

MARCH

Symphonic Wind Ensemble March 13 3 pm Eppley Music Department

The Symphonic Wind Ensemble is Morningside's concert band. The student ensemble performs contemporary and traditional wind literature.

Levitt Art Gallery Lecture March 16 7 pm Levitt Art Gallery

Sioux City Art Center Curator Todd Behrens will present information and historical context for a selection of art in the Helen Levitt Collection at Morningside.

My Year of Living Biblically
A.J. Jacobs
Goldstein Lecture March 17 7:30 pm Yockey

Jacobs is the editor at large for Esquire magazine and the author of three New York Times bestsellers, including "The Year of Living Biblically" which documents his quest to follow every single rule in the Bible.

Choral Collage Concert March 20 3 pm Eppley Music Department

Pianist Denis Evstuhin March 22 7:30 pm Eppley Music Department

Evstuhin was the winner of the 2009 Iowa Piano Competition. He also has been a prize winner in the Rachmaninoff, Balakirev and Andorra international competitions.

Serious Civics

The Modern Progressive Movement March 24 6 pm UPS

Dr. Sam Clovis, professor and chair of the business department, focuses on the evolution and current state of progressivism in America.

APRIL

Choral Composition Festival Concert April 10 7:30 pm Eppley Music Department

The Morningside Choral Composition Festival culminates with a concert performance.

"Spoon River Anthology" April 14-16 7 pm
April 17 2 pm Klinger-Neal Theatre Department

Life in the fictional small town of Spoon River during the late 1800s is portrayed through a series of monologues delivered by deceased residents.

Poet David Evans April 14 7 pm UPS English Department

South Dakota Poet Laureate David Evans was born in Sioux City and graduated from Morningside. He is the author or editor of several books of poetry and prose.

Serious Civics
Comparative Economic Systems April 21 6 pm UPS

Dr. Sam Clovis, professor and chair of the business department, examines the key components—and proponents—of capitalism, socialism and communism.

Instrumental Collage Concert April 29 7:30 pm Eppley Music Department

All of Morningside's instrumental wind ensembles perform music that represents a wide range of genres and styles.

MAY

Youth Orchestras Concert May 1 7 pm Eppley Music Department

The Youth Orchestras of the Leo Kucinski Academy of Music feature musicians in three age groups, ranging from elementary school through college.

Instrumental Jazz Concert May 2 7:30 pm Eppley Music Department

The concert features the Morningside College Jazz Ensemble and the Morningside College Jazz Combo.

Music Department Concert May 3 4:30 pm Buhler Outdoor Performance Center

Morningside music department vocal and instrumental ensembles and groups will perform during the concert.

Serious Civics
Economics and Presidential Elections May 19 6 pm UPS

Dr. Sam Clovis, professor and chair of the business department, discusses various templates for evaluating presidential candidates and the impact economic philosophies are likely to have on the next presidential election based on lessons from history.